

Full contents

List of figures	xix
List of tables	xxii
Useful HRM web links	xxiv
About the authors	xxvii
Dear student	xxviii
Dear lecturer	xxix
Preface	xxx
Overview	xxx
Approach	xxx
Content	xxxii
Plan of the book	xxxiii
Teaching aids	xxxv
New to the fourth edition	xxxvi
Companion website	xxxvi
Acknowledgements	xxxviii
List of abbreviations	xlii

Part One

THE HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT ARENA	1
1 The nature of human resource management John Bratton	3
Chapter outline	3
Chapter objectives	3
Introduction	4
The history of human resource management	5
Keynesianism: collectivism and personnel management	5
Neoliberalism: individualism and human resource management	6
Management and human resource management	7
The meaning of 'human resource'	8
HRM in Practice 1.1: Rail firms shunt 'old BR way' into sidings	9
The meaning of 'management'	10
The nature of the employment relationship	11
Human resource management functions	15
HRM in Practice 1.2: The 21st century chief human resources officer	17
Organizing the human resource function	18
Human resource management practices, contingencies and skills	19
Theoretical perspectives on human resource management	20
Models of human resource management	21

Personnel management versus human resource management	29
HRM in Practice 1.3: HR has much to contribute to volunteer management	30
Paradoxes in human resource management	31
Studying human resource management	33
Chapter summary	34
Key concepts	35
Chapter review questions	35
Further reading	36
Practising human resource management	36
Chapter case study: SERVO ENGINEERING	37
HR-related skill development	38
Notes	38
2 Strategic human resource management John Bratton	39
Chapter outline	39
Chapter objectives	39
Introduction	40
Strategic management	40
HRM in Practice 2.1: Raising the profile of the HR agenda	41
Model of strategic management	42
Hierarchy of strategy	44
HRM in Practice 2.2: Culture shift invigorates Dell	47
Strategic human resource management	48
Concepts and models	48
The matching model	51
Human resource strategy models	52
The control-based model	53
The resource-based model	55
An integrative model of HR strategy	57
HRM in Practice 2.3: Airline hopes to cut costs, regain market share	59
Evaluating strategic human resource management and models of human resource strategy	60
Dimensions of strategic human resource management	62
Human resource management practices and performance	63
Organizational architecture and strategic human resource management	63
Leadership and strategic human resource management	63
Workplace learning and strategic human resource management	64
Trade unions and strategic human resource management	64
Chapter summary	65
Key concepts	66
Chapter review questions	66
Further reading	66
Practising human resource management	67
Chapter case study: AIR NATIONAL	68
HR-related skill development	71
Notes	71
3 International human resource management John Bratton	72
Chapter outline	72

Chapter objectives	72
Introduction	73
Global capitalism	74
HRM in Practice 3.1: 'For Chrysler, China offers both profit, peril'	75
Typologies of global business strategy	75
HRM in Practice 3.2: Blow-out in Bangladesh, Tengratila, Bangladesh	77
International human resource management	80
Global capitalism and employment relations	80
International and strategic international human resource management	81
A model of strategic international human resource management	82
The internationalization of the human resource management cycle	85
International recruitment and selection	86
HRM in Practice 3.3: Women find overseas postings out of reach	87
International rewards	88
International training and development	88
International performance appraisal	90
Repatriation	91
Comparative human resource management	91
HRM in Europe	92
HRM in Asia	96
HRM in Practice 3.4: Indian act threatens outsourcing prowess	100
Japan	102
HRM in Practice 3.5: CEO's harmonious-society plan? Fire 14,000 staff	103
The convergence/divergence debate	103
Chapter summary	107
Key concepts	108
Chapter review questions	108
Further reading	109
Practising human resource management	109
Chapter case study: FAEKI	110
HR-related skill development	112
Notes	112

Part Two

THE HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT CONTEXT 113

4 The context of human resource management John Bratton	115
Chapter outline	115
Chapter objectives	115
Introduction	116
Conceptions of contexts	117
The economic context	118
Globalization	120
HRM in Practice 4.1: China, India and the USA will drive growth	121
HRM in Practice 4.2: Thread that could span global gulf	122
Debating globalization	123
The global and the local	123
HRM in Practice 4.3: Ratifying Kyoto estimated to cost up to 450,000 jobs	125

Local labour markets, 1970–2005	126
HRM in Practice 4.4: Protests against France’s new job law escalate	127
HRM in Practice 4.5: Employees urge British Gas to reconsider plan to move 2000 jobs to India	133
The technology context	134
The political context	136
The state and business	136
HRM in Practice 4.6: China frets over expanding income gap	137
The state and neoliberalism	138
The state and the employment relationship	139
The social context	144
HRM in Practice 4.7: IBM labels diversity a ‘strategic imperative’	144
HRM in Practice 4.8: Mandatory retirement attacked	146
The dynamics of culture	147
Change and human resource management	150
Chapter summary	153
Key concepts	154
Chapter review questions	154
Further reading	154
Practising human resource management	155
Chapter case study: OIL TOOL INCORPORATED PLC	156
HR-related skill development	157
Notes	157
5 Restructuring work and organizations John Bratton	158
Chapter outline	158
Chapter objectives	158
Introduction	159
The nature of work	160
Classical approaches to job design – scientific management	162
Early developments	162
Scientific management	163
HRM in Practice 5.1: Only 39 per cent of employees have a ‘good’ job	164
Fordism	165
Human relations movement and job redesign	166
Contemporary approaches – self-management	170
HRM in Practice 5.2: Workers turn off autopilot and take charge on assembly lines of the 21st century	170
Japanese management and organizational culture: Japanese-style work design	173
Knowledge work and post-bureaucratic designs	177
Knowledge work	177
Post-bureaucratic designs	178
HRM in Practice 5.3: Council management forced to shed tiers	179
Business process re-engineering	181
HRM in Practice 5.4: Working part-time no bed of roses: study	184
Organizational design and human resource management	184
Tension and paradox in job design	186
Chapter summary	189
Key concepts	190

Chapter review questions	190
Further reading	190
Practising human resource management	191
Chapter case study: WOLDS INSURANCE PLC	192
HR-related skill development	193
Notes	193

Part Three

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT PRACTICES 195

6 Human resource planning Jeff Gold	197
Chapter outline	197
Chapter objectives	197
Introduction	198
The genesis of human resource planning: manpower planning	199
Human resource planning	206
Human resource accounting	209
e-HR	212
HRM in Practice 6.1: BT boosts managers' role in HR	213
HRM in Practice 6.2: Unilever looks set to outsource HR	215
Flexibility	215
The 'flexible firm'	217
Flexible working today	218
Teleworking, outsourcing and offshoring	220
Attitudes to work	223
Diversity management	224
HRM in Practice 6.3: BBC announces new diversity council	227
Career management	228
Chapter summary	233
Key concepts	234
Chapter review questions	235
Further reading	235
Practising human resource management	235
Chapter case study: CDX BANK	236
HR-related skill development	237
Notes	237
7 Recruitment and selection Jeff Gold	239
Chapter outline	239
Chapter objectives	239
Introduction	240
Legal context	242
HRM in Practice 7.1: Blind jobseekers brought up to speed	244
Recruitment and attraction	245
Fitting the person to the environment, organization and job	246
Attracting the candidate	250
HRM in Practice 7.2: Bombings raise demand for Met jobs	253
Job descriptions	253

Selection	256
Reliability and validity issues	257
Selection interviewing	258
Psychometric testing	262
Online testing	264
HRM in Practice 7.3: Online testing gets top score at Deloitte	265
Assessment centres	266
Chapter summary	269
Key concepts	270
Chapter review questions	270
Further reading	270
Practising human resource management	271
Chapter case study: MEISTER SOFTWARE UK	271
HR-related skill development	273
Notes	273
8 Performance management and appraisal Jeff Gold	274
Chapter outline	274
Chapter objectives	274
Introduction	275
Performance measurement and human resource management	275
HRM in Practice 8.1: RBS examines its people practices	276
The purpose and processes of performance management	278
HRM in Practice 8.2: Performance management tool makes company more strategic	279
Performance, judgements and feedback	282
Appraisal and control	284
From control to development?	288
HRM in Practice 8.3: Disney's approach to creative thinking	289
HRM in Practice 8.4: Radio company tunes into middle managers for succession planning	297
Approaches to performance rating	298
Inputs	298
Results and outcomes	298
Behaviour in performance	299
Chapter summary	301
Key concepts	302
Chapter review questions	303
Further reading	303
Practising human resource management	303
Chapter case study: Insight Communications	304
HR-related skill development	305
Notes	305
9 Human resource development Jeff Gold	306
Chapter outline	306
Chapter objectives	306
Introduction	307
Strategy and human resource development	308

Strategic human resource development	310
Diversity and human resource development	312
Establishing human resource development	313
Skills and commitment	316
HRM in Practice 9.1: Getting the value from NVQs at the Northern Snooker Centre	321
The demand for skills	323
HRM in Practice 9.2: NTP and Investors in People	325
Implementing human resource development	327
A systematic training model	328
An integrated and systemic approach	331
Workplace learning	339
Understanding learning	340
Organization learning	343
Knowledge management	345
HRM in Practice 9.3: Project-based learning at LBBC	348
e-Learning	349
Chapter summary	351
Key concepts	353
Chapter review questions	353
Further reading	353
Practising human resource management	354
Chapter case study: ATKINSON GENERATION	354
HR-related skill development	355
Notes	356
10 Reward management John Bratton	358
Chapter outline	358
Chapter objectives	358
Introduction	359
The nature of reward management	360
HRM in Practice 10.1: Water firm widens scope of performance-related pay	362
A model of reward management	363
Strategic perspective	366
Reward objectives	369
Reward options	372
HRM in Practice 10.2: Stock options still the preferred incentive	376
HRM in Practice 10.3: German women prefer fixed salaries, men performance-related pay	377
HRM in Practice 10.4: Pick-up a good benefit package at Penguin	379
Reward techniques	380
HRM in Practice 10.5: Workers sue Ford for bias	386
Reward competitiveness	387
Establishing pay levels	388
Government and pay	390
Equal pay legislation	392
HRM in Practice 10.6: Part-time lecturer wins precedent-setting victory	393
Paradox and reward	395

Chapter summary	396
Key concepts	397
Chapter review questions	397
Further reading	397
Practising human resource management	398
Chapter case study: CITY BANK	399
HR-related skill development	400
Notes	400
11 Union–management relations John Bratton	401
Chapter outline	401
Chapter objectives	401
Introduction	402
Union–management relations	404
Management strategies	406
HRM in Practice 11.1: Wal-Mart workers vote for union	406
Strategies towards unions	407
Trade unions	412
Union membership	412
Interpreting union decline	415
Union structure	417
Union bargaining power	418
Collective bargaining	420
Collective bargaining structure	421
The collective agreement	423
Trade unions and human resource management	423
HRM in Practice 11.2: Beware the damage one cannot see	426
Union strategies: partnership and paradox?	427
Organizing strategy	428
Partnership strategy	429
HRM in Practice 11.3: Relationships the key to corporate success in 2020	430
Legal context of union–management relations	433
Chapter summary	435
Key concepts	436
Chapter review questions	436
Further reading	436
Practising human resource management	437
Chapter case study: EAST YORKSHIRE CITY COUNCIL	438
HR-related skill development	438
Notes	439
12 Employee involvement and relations John Bratton	440
Chapter outline	440
Chapter objectives	440
Introduction	441
The nature of employee relations	441
Employee communication	444
A communications model	445
Developing an effective communication system	447

Two-way communication	448
HRM in Practice 12.1: Communication overload spreading	449
Direct communication methods	450
Information disclosed by management	451
Employee involvement	451
HRM in Practice 12.2: Partnership equals profits	454
A general theory of employee involvement	455
Indirect employee participation	457
Models of joint consultation	458
Extent of joint consultation	458
The structure and operation of joint consultation committees	459
European works councils	460
Obstacles to employee involvement	462
Employee involvement and paradox	463
Employee rights	464
Sexual harassment as a employee relations issue	465
Employee discipline	467
Disciplinary concepts	468
Rules of behaviour	468
Penalties	469
Procedures in discipline	469
HRM in Practice 12.3: Two co-workers killed after employee receives a disciplinary letter	471
Chapter summary	473
Key concepts	474
Chapter review questions	474
Further reading	475
Practising human resource management	475
Chapter case study: COMMUNICATIONS AT FORRESTER
COMPUTER SERVICES	476
HR-related skill development	478
Notes	478
13 Health and wellness management John Bratton	479
Chapter outline	479
Chapter objectives	479
Introduction	480
Health and wellness and human resource management	481
The changing approach to workplace health and safety	482
The importance of health and wellness	484
Economic considerations	484
Legal considerations	484
Psychological considerations	485
Moral considerations	485
Health and safety legislation	486
Pioneering legislation	487
The Factories Act 1961	487
The Offices, Shops and Railway Premises Act 1963	487

The Robens Report and the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974	488
The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974	489
European Union health and safety legislation	489
Workplace health and wellness issues	491
Health issues	491
Sick building syndrome	491
HRM in Practice 13.1: Capital's glass globe fails green test	492
Workplace stress	493
HRM in Practice 13.2: Workplace stress more prevalent than illness, injury	494
HRM in Practice 13.3: Beaten up – just for doing your job	496
Alcohol and drug abuse	499
Smoking	500
HRM in Practice 13.4: But she didn't even smoke	500
Acquired immune deficiency syndrome	502
Workplace wellness	503
HRM in Practice 13.5: Unions, management see wellness through different prisms	504
Managing health and wellness	505
Design safer systems of work	506
Exhibit commitment	506
Inspect the workplace	507
Establish procedures and controls	507
Promote a wellness strategy	508
Develop safety training programmes	508
Set up health and safety committees	509
Monitor policy	510
Integrate	511
Draw up an action plan	511
Paradox in workplace health and wellness	511
Chapter summary	514
Key concepts	515
Chapter review questions	515
Further reading	515
Practising human resource management	516
Chapter case study: MANAGING WORKPLACE WELLNESS AT THE CITY OF KAMLOOPS	516
HR-related skill development	518
Notes	519

Part Four

THE EVALUATION CONTEXT 521

14 Evaluating human resource management John Bratton	523
Chapter outline	523
Chapter objectives	523
Introduction	524
Rationale for human resource management evaluation	524

HRM in Practice 14.1: HR focusing on how it can add value	526
Human resource management–performance model	527
Human resource management	528
Employee performance measures	528
Organizational performance measures	529
Other factors	530
Measurement issues	530
Researching human resource management: designs and methods	532
Survey research	533
Qualitative case study research	533
Experimental research	534
Existing research and meta-analysis	535
Research design issues	536
HRM in Practice 14.2: Productivity is a time bomb	538
Approaches to evaluating human resource strategy	539
Statistical evaluation of human resource strategy	540
Financial evaluation of the human resource strategy	541
Evaluating human resource management systems	542
Demonstrating the human resource strategy–organization performance link	545
HRM in Practice 14.3: HR ‘can lower NHS death rates’	547
Theorizing the human resource management–performance link	551
Chapter summary	553
Key concepts	554
Chapter review questions	554
Further reading	555
Practising human resource management	555
Chapter case study: ALPHA HOTEL	556
HR-related skill development	557
Notes	558
15 Conclusion: Rebuilding trust and voice
John Bratton and Jeff Gold	559
Chapter outline	559
Chapter objectives	559
Reconstructing the moral profession of human resource management	560
Ethics in human resource management	562
HRM in Practice 15.1: Defence paints Fastow as greedy liar	563
Does HRM work? Embeddedness and divergence	564
Towards a practice perspective in HRM	568
Final comment	572
Notes	572
Appendices	573
A The CIPD code of professional conduct	574
B CIPD professional conduct disciplinary procedure	575
Glossary	579
Bibliography	589
Index	633