

Assignments

1 Review a wine bar, supermarket and take-away restaurant in line with the following:

How do these organizations each cope with the long opening hours involved?

Do they use flexitime? If so, give details. If not, could they and how would it work?

2 Together with two others, draw up a list of factors that affect people's attitude to work. Then review 12 staff from an organization of your choice in terms of how they would classify these chosen factors into hygiene and motivators. Analyse the results and explain your findings.
