PROPERTY LAW

Land Law 6th Edition

NEW Edition

Joe Cursley, formerly Senior Lecturer in Law, University of East London, UK, Mark Davys, Keele University School of Law, UK, and winner of the Keele Individual Award for Excellence in Learning and Teaching 2007 and Kate Green, formerly Principal Lecturer in Law, University of East London, UK

This title expertly strikes a balance between depth of coverage, comprehensiveness and accessibility in providing a clear and concise introduction to this rich area of the law. Learning is supported by summary boxes, diagrams, exercises and further reading, and further enhanced with an innovative website. The sixth edition has been newly updated with changes arising from TOLATA and the adoption of Home Information Packs, as well as new cases including Stack v Dowden; Beaulane Properties Ltd v Palmer; JA Pye (Oxford) Ltd v United Kingdom; Ofule v Bossert, making this an up-to-the-minute guide to land law.

Making Sense of Land Law 2nd Edition

April Stroud, Southampton Solent University, School of Law, UK, ALT Law Teacher of the Year 2005

'By approaching land law in a different way this book offers a key to the mysteries of land law for students who find the subject impenetrable.' – C. J. Willmore, School of Law, Bristol University, UK

Written with the student in mind, this text provides a fresh and innovative approach to land law, intending to help those coming to the subject for the first time as part of a law based degree or study in a related discipline. A clear and engaging style assists students' understanding of the essential concepts. Practical scenarios and diagrams feature throughout with question and answer debates, underpinned with the relevant case law and statutory material. An ideal course companion and revision guide.
